There is something about a "bestie". This person just "gets you"; it's a person you don't have to explain yourself to. This one is confidant and a source of strength. A best friend is a gift. Even a true friend is of equal value. How are we a friend? What does it take to live into the role of friend? When God fashioned us from the very beginning of time, he took note that it wasn't good for a person to be alone. Our very nature thrives when we are in relationship with one another. We absolutely need one another. This Sunday, we will be discovering the joy in relationships!
