as I have loved you
- Jesus (John 13:34)

'Maundy' comes from the word mandate, as it is at the Last Supper that Jesus tells his followers, "A new command I give you: love one another. As I have loved you, so you must love one another. By this everyone will know that you are my disciples, if you love one another" (John 13: 34-35).

Maundy Thursday the entrance into Good Friday, Holy Saturday, and Easter Day.
